* If the Index falls as much as possible (100%), the resulting loss for a 10% Buffer Strategy would be -90%.

Strategy Availability may vary by state.

A fee is deducted from each strategy on a daily basis and compounds to an effective annual rate of 0.75%. The fee for any given day is calculated as a percentage of and is subtracted from the then remaining investment base of an indexed strategy. Deduction of the contract fee may result in a loss greater than the maximum loss indicated above.
